Chorus:

Space... The grandest place...
You can see right through it. There's nothing to it.
Space... The grandest place...

Verse 1:

The sun... Our closest star...
It may seem near, but you need not fear, it's far!
The sun, our star...
The moon... Our satellite...
It's rocky and round, and reflects light at night,
Our satellite...

Break 1:

Now Mercury is a very hot planet... Venus, no cool spot...
And we know Earth... From it's rich soil
Grows every living thing we've got!

(Repeat Chorus)

Verse 2:

Now Mars... is orbiting...
Then Jupiter and Saturn with its rings... orbiting...

Break 2:

Uranus is a distant globe... Neptune further yet...
And Pluto, oh, so far away...
A planetary orb, you bet!

(Repeat Chorus)

Break 3:

And don't forget our Milky Way, this vast Galaxy!
Besides a billion stars its home to our Solar System, You and Me!

Verse 1:

What kind of salary would celery command
If vegetables were working for a living?
I suppose tomatoes might ask for a raisin pay
If its peanuts they were given!

Chorus:

Imagination! That's what we've got!
Fruits and vegetables they cannot
Cleverly conceive of great creations
But we can wish and dream and wonder,
Ponder over thoughts at our command,
Because we're human we can say,
Imagination - carry me away!

Verse 2:

Would asparagus and carrots trust each other with a secret
Or believe that each might spill the beans?
Could a leek plug a hole? An onion cry?
A pear appear to help a weighty watermelon
Spell a volunteer?

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:

Would oranges be oranges if they turned green with envy?
Could cabbage, beets and radishes be faddish, chic or trendy?

The Sheiks Sheep

Verse 1:

Long ago and far away a dozen Sheik ruled the land.
They were rich in silver, gold and pearls... and sand!
Well, it seems that one fine Sheik, the sixth for what it means,
Had five strong sheep, and one so weak it couldn't bleat worth beans!

So this Sheik sent a fine young man to search the whole world over,
To find a cure to make this sheep's weak bleat much bolder.
And this man searched and chanced upon a lamp and who appeared
But a Genie and he said, "My son, I know the magic cure!"

Chorus:

Get a box of biscuits, a box of mixed biscuits,
And a biscuit mixer, mister mix 'em up a batch.
A box of biscuits, a box of mixed biscuits,
And a biscuit mixer, have 'em put 'em down the hatch.
And the sixth Sheiks sixth sheep's weak bleat (will be) (now is) heard.
The sixth Sheiks sixth sheep's weak bleat (will be) (now is) cured!

Verse 2:

Well, the young man thanked the Genie and in joy and jubilation
Said, "I'll return to tell the Sheik this priceless revelation!"
But the Genie said, "Please wait. There's one more thing, my son.
To tell this simple cure you'll need some magic of the tongue!"

And when the young man tried to speak the words the Genie told him,
His voice moved like molasses, its sound far less than golden.
And this man hung his head, but the Genie said "Son, the magic to it
Is really very simple. Just believe that you can do it!"

(repeat chorus – with "will be" and go to Bridge)

Bridge:

Well, the young man returned with a sparkle in his eye...
And a crispness to his gait... And a heart full of pride...
Cause he knew he'd found the magic so with glibness of the tongue
Began to speak and told the Sheik exactly how it's done! And they got a...

(Repeat chorus – with "now is" and go to Coda)

Coda:

Well, isn't this the craziest story that you've ever heard! See you later folks... Baa Baa!!!
